

Wetappo.

Mr Schermer, of Farndale, spent Sunday at Mr Olivers.

L. C. Davis took a load of lumber up Wetappo creek last week on the Cuba.

A party of Cromanton folks came up this far on a pleasure trip Sunday in the launch Favorita.

Mrs E. G. Mack of Wewahitchka passed through Wednesday enroute to Parker, for a few days visit with Mrs Donalson and family.

Mesdames Kronmiller and Dyer, Misses S. and J. Dyer, and Florence Dyer made a business trip to Millville Thursday evening returning Friday.

Four boats from Farndale and Allanton were here Sunday afternoon with pleasure parties on board. They were Mr and Mrs L. C. Davis and family, Mesdames Stone and Atkins and children and Misses Mabel and Effie Taylor, Allie Whitfield, Ethel and Lona Raffield, also a young lady who is teaching the Baxter school, also Messrs Harry and Charles Allan, Rodney Kirvin, Clayton Raffield, Masters Lacy Raffield and Joe Whitfield. W. F. Woodford and daughter and Mrs Ellison. We had singing with a piano accompaniment graphophone and organ.

The following tobacco comment is from the last issue of the Gadsden County Times:

The tobacco growers of Gadsden can dictate terms of finances to Wall street plutocrats.

Sanford's celery crop is said to have caused the circulation of $400,000, in that city the past season. Pretty good item for one crop.—The Daily Sun.

Gadsden tobacco crop will put $5,000,000 in circulation in Quincy. How is that for one crop?

The Havana Leaf Tobacco Company have completed their large packing house on the Wilcox plantation, and are buying all the high grade Sumatra that comes their way. They have purchased a new sawmill and slat machine, and will in a short time begin to get out material to shade twenty acres of land.

The Times was in error last week in giving the statement relative to the tobacco crop of Messrs. J. M. Brockman and Robert Wynn.

Mr Wynn had the thirteen acres of shade and received the check for $11,000.

Mr. Brockman had two acres of shade and received therefore $3,263.20. After paying for his shade, his fertilizers, his hired help, and all other expenses, Mr Brockman had above $2,000 left, absolutely clear profit.

STATE OF FLORIDA.

JACKSON COUNTY.

This day personally appeared before me W. H. Milton and John Milton, III, who each for themselves acknowledged to me that they signed the foregoing proposed charter of the Bank of Panama City.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 12th day of August, 1907.

(Seal) MAUD PITTMAN,
Notary Public, State of Florida at Large.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

To facilitate the prompt and economical organization of the bank the five directors were assigned the 150 shares of stock, the same to be made over to the individual stockholders as soon as issued. To have gotten and printed each stockholders name would have required over 50 affidavits, made at various points in the state, and caused a heavy printing bill to have published the same, with much delay. Thus this method of organizing.
